26. THE WOODSON AFRICAN AMERICAN MUSEUM OF FLORIDA: 2240 9th Ave. S., St. Pete, FL 33712 - (727) 323-1104: The Woodson African American Museum of Florida's current exhibition, 'Sister Gertrude Morgan: A Ministry of Divergence' will be on view during April's ArtWalk from 5-8 PM. Sister Gertrude Morgan (1900-1980), born Gertrude Williams, embarked on a transformative journey from Alabama to New Orleans, where she declared the city the “headquarters of sin” and dedicated her life to spreading the Gospel. Through her vivid paintings, spirited music, and powerful oration, she became a beacon of faith in the vibrant culture of New Orleans. Her art, characterized by its bold use of color and profound biblical narratives, serves as a testament to her unwavering dedication to her ministry. The exhibition 'Sister Gertrude Morgan: A Ministry of Divergence' offers visitors an immersive experience of Sister Morgan’s multifaceted ministry, showcasing her unique blend of art, music, and poetry. Her works, rich in religious symbolism and personal testament, challenge conventional boundaries between the sacred and the secular, inviting viewers to explore the depths of faith and creativity.

Fine craft techniques are ceramics, fiber, glass, jewelry, metal, mixed media, sculpture, and wood. In our exhibition gallery we will have on display Animal Attraction, showcasing the brilliant and thought-provoking work of contemporary artists who use animal themes to delve into complex ideas. The exhibition, curated by nationally recognized ceramic artists Taylor Robenalt and Tiffany Leach, promises to be a captivating exploration of the animal form as a vehicle for contemplating various concepts, including society, gender and sexuality, current events, memory, and the human condition. The exhibition will be on view from March 22—May 12, 2024. During April's Second Saturday ArtWalk we will be hosting the artist reception for all artists participating in this exhibition from 6-8 p.m.

31. THE ARTLOFTS OF ST. PETERSBURG: 10 5th St. N., St. Pete, FL 33701 - Second Floor - (727) 449-5146 – ArtLofts proudly presents "Moonscapes" by Jules Cozine. Jules Cozine is a painter's painter, working in the traditional mediums of oil on canvas and watercolor on paper. Jules Cozine's art is semi - abstract, inspired by Helen Frankenthaler, an abstract expressionist and pioneer of the genre. Fascinated by nature, Jules' paintings are originally inspired by cloud formations and their transparent layers. Working originally from images of moonlight through clouds over the water, the paintings have evolved into abstract interpretations that emphasize the myriad of colors seen in water vapor. The result is an extensive study in pattern, color and transparency. Come on up to see this unique show then visit with the ArtLofts artists in their working studios. For information contact Rebecca Skelton 727-449-5146.
