Sip Shop Hooray showcases a rotating collection of local artistry, each thoughtfully curated to complement the boutique’s vibrant and welcoming atmosphere. As you sip and shop, discover expressive works that invite you to linger, connect, and experience creativity in its most inspiring form.
- 5. THE WERK GALLERY: 2210 1st Ave S., St. Pete, FL 33712 – (727) 289-8685 – “The Rite of Spring III: Thaw the ICE”. Normally a season to celebrate all the growth and creativity that the spring season brings, this year we are opening our space to artists who need to express their bewilderment, anger, disgust, fear, disappointment and sadness about the directions this country finds itself taking under an administration practicing blatant racial profiling to fulfill quotas and mass incarceration with total disregard for human rights. In this exhibition’s confrontation of unwarranted and unchecked authority, The Werk Gallery acknowledges the need to make a change in any way possible by providing a space for collective dissent.
- 6. MIRELLA CIMATO ART GALLERY: 2145 1st Ave. S., St. Pete, FL 33712 – The art of international artist Willowe Espinosa.

13. MOREAN CENTER FOR CLAY: 420 22nd St. S., St. Pete, FL 33712 - (727) 896-2529 – Alexia Benavent's De Aqui, De Allá and Jenny Day's Happy Birthday Stinky bring a power pair of new sculptural exhibitions to the gallery and retail space: Benavent shares her ceramic dominos, relief photo tiles, and colorful banana bunches in a celebration of connecting with home and identity. Day displays an army of whimsical clay creatures surrounding an imaginary birthday party, using the fantastic and mystical to edge worry away. When you see Benavent's work, the first thing you will come to realize is its deep connection to place, exploring fragility through use of soft and hard materials. "In a diaspora, often the only thing you can take from your home are memories. Suddenly everything can be a reservoir of memory," Benavent says. Day's work, by default, holds a deep reverence for the natural world, concerns about climate change and natural disaster. Lately, however, she has created another landscape populated by an army of friendly creatures. "Here burdens are dismissed by the whimsical," Day says. "Happy Birthday Stinky invites viewers to attend a birthday party for a skunk, complete with a dinosaur piñata, cake, ice cream, presents, balloons, and pizza." Both exhibitions can be found at <https://moreanartscenter.org/morean-arts-center-location/upcoming-exhibits/>

We hope to see you

all there!

14. SOFT WATER GALLERY: 515 22nd St. S. (Suite F), St. Pete, FL 33712 – German-American artist Anja Palombo and Cuban-American artist Juan Alonso-Rodriguez celebrate the interplay of curves and angles, whether expressed in three dimensions or in two. Both embrace an elegant minimalism, each drawing on references and experiences specific to their upbringing. Palombo's European heritage has fostered a love of understated matte bisque finishes in her ceramic work, which often takes cues from the stylized forms of ancient Cycladic and Mycenaean sculpture. Alonso-Rodriguez's striking work references architectural and botanical influences, as well as lingering memories of his childhood in Havana. Both create works that are deceptively complex in their simplicity, and that provide a perfect complement to sophisticated interiors across a broad variety of design styles.

14. NANCIE NORMAN - ArtsXChange Studios - 515 22nd St. S. (Studio 102), St. Pete, FL 33712 – I am an oil and acrylic painter. I use a lot of texture and color as I paint landscapes, animals and flowers. I am known for my fish paintings which I describe as balanced chaos of color and movement.

CENTRAL ARTS DISTRICT

26. MOREAN ARTS CENTER & GLASS STUDIO: 719 Central Ave., St. Pete FL 33701 - (727) 822-7872 – Come by and meet the artists of the two fabulous new exhibitions opening: Fresh Squeezed 10: Emerging Artists in Florida. The dual location exhibition housed at the Morean Arts Center and Chihuly Collection special exhibition space nurtures and advances the careers of 8 emerging visual artists while also giving our community the opportunity to discover exciting new art being made in our region. Featured artists include Alberto Alonso - Winter Haven, FL, Ysabel Flores - Tallahassee, FL, Angelina Palmisano - Maitland, FL, Clancy Riehm - Largo, FL, Jamie Rodriguez - West Palm Beach, FL, Kimberly Vorperian - St. Pete, FL, Gwen Mehler - Fleming Island, FL, and Gillian Probert - St. Pete, FL. The Morean would like to thank sponsors The Gobiuff Foundation and Lisa and Perry Everett for their continued support. June Bunch: State Flower Ladies. June Bunch transforms 50 state flowers into botanical ballerinas. Her illustrations combine figure drawing with floral theatrics, adding elements of vibrant colors and texture-rich embroidery to her work. In an instant, her images stretch the viewer's eye past the present to see the blossom's full-seasonal vitality, summarized in one frozen motion. The art is created first through expressive figure drawings and botanical sketches that are then translated digitally and drawn line-by-line with a pen-tool, tending to each marking with thoughtful detail. June Bunch would like to thank the Gobiuff Foundation for their generosity in partially funding the exhibition. Learn more about both exhibitions at www.moreanartscenter.org/morean-arts-center-location/upcoming-exhibits/

27. THE STUDIO@620, Inc.: 620 1st Ave. S., St. Pete, FL 33701 – Production Playing February 12-15th: What starts as a polite academic conversation quickly unravels into something far more charged. This February, HerStoriesTold brings The Niceties—the sharp, timely play by Eleanor Burgess—to The Studio@620. Set in a university office, The Niceties centers on a meeting between a progressive white professor and her Black student that spirals into a fierce, deeply human debate about race, power, history, and who gets to control the narrative. What begins with good intentions exposes uncomfortable truths about privilege, identity, and the limits of civility. Smart, unsettling, and often darkly funny, The Niceties doesn't offer easy answers—but it invites audiences into the tension, the questions, and the conversation we're still learning how to have. Join us for a production that challenges assumptions, sparks dialogue, and lingers long after the lights go down.

28. FLORIDA CRAFTART: 501 Central Ave., St. Pete FL 33701 - (727) 821-7391 – Our current ongoing exhibition: The Makers Who Made Us, created in celebration of Florida CraftArt's 75th anniversary, this exhibition honors the visionary artists who have shaped Florida's craft landscape since the organization's founding in 1951. This milestone show spotlights the makers whose creativity, innovation, and dedication have defined fine craft in Florida across generations. Featuring ceramics, fiber, glass, jewelry, wood, metal, and mixed media, the exhibition is drawn predominantly from Florida CraftArt's permanent collection. Curated by Michele Tuegel and Jorge Vidal. Our retail gallery space: Located in the heart of downtown St. Pete's arts district, Florida CraftArt is a vibrant nonprofit gallery showcasing contemporary fine craft by over 220 Florida artists. Explore ceramics, fiber, glass, jewelry, metal, wood, and more in our main gallery and curated exhibition space. With new work arriving weekly, every visit offers something fresh—for collectors, art lovers, and gift seekers alike.

29. THE ARTLOFTS OF ST. PETERSBURG: 10 5th St. N., St. Pete, FL 33701 - Second Floor - (727) 449-5146 – We expect to be under construction! Please stop by and see what is happening in our individual studios....and what might pop up in the main space!

29. B. STARK ART: 10 5th St. N. Studio 208, St. Pete, FL 33701 Second Floor - (727) 821-5759 – Call for art. Ratical 3: Come See Me - April 1 - 30. B. Stark Art studio. Drop off by appointment. This is the third annual fundraiser for Florida Rat Rescuers Network. It is free to enter and sales are direct to artists. The only request is that artist donate a minimum of 20% of their art sale to FRRN, a 501c3 organization that works to educate on pet rat ownership, help with emergency cases, and rehome domestic pet rats. An article on the art show is going to be published in The Northeast Journal March / April edition. The point of the show is to express creativity and give this misunderstood pet a little bit of love. It is also to educate people that pet rats do not deserve the stigma that they often have. They are sweet, intelligent, and loving creatures who bond with their owners and with each other. Due to restrictions and construction plans at ArtLofts, the show will be held on the outside wall of my personal studio, number 208. We will do an online opening April 4th, on the official National Rat Day (yes, it is a thing!) with a secondary opening for the Second Saturday art walk on April 11th. Art should have a rodent-based theme that is positive. Artists of all levels are welcome to enter. This year we will have a People's choice award. Please include proper wiring for hanging and a card with title, artist name, price and contact / sale information. To submit, email brandybstark13@gmail.com
