ST. PETE SECOND SATURDAY ARTWALK!

Walk, Drive or Take the Trolley!

Second Saturday ArtWalk is where the Central Arts District, Grand Central District, Warehouse Arts District, Uptown Arts District and downtown Waterfront District come together as ONE ARTS DESTINATION with many venues hosting the opening night of their latest exhibit. ArtWalk takes place every Second Saturday of the month and these venues are happily waiting for your exploration, conversation, purchases and inspiration! Make an evening of it and stop for dinner, drinks or dessert at a local restaurant.

A branded white trolley will also be moving art enthusiasts around to over 40 ArtWalk venues from 5-9pm. (The Waterfront District galleries can be seen by using the FREE Downtown Looper, which runs every 15 minutes.) The trolley will start at 5pm, then make continuous loops until 9pm.

Keep in mind that there is only one trolley running at this time, so wait times between stops may be up to 1 hour, which gives you plenty of time to relax, explore and support our artists through a purchase! It is our goal to eventually add a second trolley when one is available as well as funding to support this. <https://stpetartsalliance.org/artwalk/>

The new Sunrunner also has stops close to the ArtWalk Trolley Route. Find out more here >>> <https://www.psta.net/about-psta/projects/sunrunner/#divMap>

Visit the following venues in person on May 13th from 5-9pm!

Venue numbers coincide with ArtWalk static and Google Map

2. THE BULA BARUA GALLERY - 2622 Fairfield Ave S. Building 7, Suite B St. Pete, FL 33712 - Featured exhibit: "Love Letters to Melbourne" by Australian abstract artist, Wyllowe Espinosa. Espinosa creates artworks inspired by her days growing up in Melbourne. Each painting pays homage to her hometown and the life and culture therein. The gallery showcases stunning Blown Glass on Canvas bespoke artworks. Artist Bula Barua creates multi-dimensional beauty and depth by combining luxury elements, such as Swarovski crystals, precious gems, 24-karat gold, and blown glass shards onto the canvas. Barua's family is from Assam, India and she is proud to be the first Assamese artist / gallery owner in the USA. Barua has taken more than 10 years to develop her technique, earning multiple accolades along the way. She has been called a "prolific genius" and "alchemist of light."

62. HEIRESS GALLERY: 2622 Fairfield Ave S. Bldg 7, Studio A St. Petersburg, FL 33712 - "Botting" exhibit by D.C. based artist, Elliot Avis continues. Botting explores narratives of identity and labor through the lens of fantasy gaming and digital avatars. Referencing the crude, blocky renderings and limited color palette of early 2000's games such as Runescape, Elliot's paintings highlight the unique collaboration of human error and perfect digital code. The artist uses this relationship between humanity and digital technology as a catalyst to discuss the links between labor ideology, feudalism, and economic progression.

NEW ADDITION TO ARTWALK 66. Jason Hackenwerth Studio -2526 Terminal Drive S. St. Pete FL 33712 - WE ANIMAL opens May 12th and includes more than 30 paintings and a large sculpture made of latex balloons. This show of recent works marries traditionally held animalistic traits to our own best and worst tendencies, threading implicit narratives of narcissistic excess, mass delusion, and personal transformation. In addition to more than a dozen new works on canvas, Hackenwerth gives viewers a powerful example of his origins as a sculptor with a large-scale sculpture that sets the tone for the entire show. "Gallery goers will enter through the massive work to be birthed into the exhibition." as the artist describes it.

TROLLEY STOP #4 – 2380 6th Avenue South

- Opening - "St. Petersburg Month of Photography (SPMOP): 2023 Photo Laureate" Nominees and winner announced at 7PM. Traditionally, a laureate is someone who is being honored because of exceptional skills or performances, and, according to SPMOP, this is the first time St. Petersburg will have a photographer laureate. The nominees for Photo Laureate have been chosen based on their exceptional ability to create images that document and represent the people and the city, in their own style and creativity, and at the same time create a powerful visual narrative. The 2023 Photo Laureate will have the honor to create an historical document of events, people and places of Tampa Bay for the next twelve months. The results of this project will be shown next year in a solo exhibition.
- Reception for the final PCCA show - Seniors in the visual art department of Pinellas County Center for the Arts (PCCA) at Gibbs High School developed a cohesive body of work that describes an in-depth exploration of a particular artistic concern or visual idea. Six students were selected to exhibit.
