Venue numbers coincide with ArtWalk static and Google Map

UPTOWN ARTS DISTRICT

50. ARTicles ART GALLERY AND THE LESLIE CURRAN GALLERY: 1234 Dr. MLK Jr St. N. Units A & B, St. Pete, FL 33705 - (727) 898-6061 – "GLYPH" continues featuring a collection of paintings by Terry Brett & ceramic sculptures by Jan Richardson.

> Terry Brett has recently been creating large monochrome paintings using organic materials and deep relief, sometimes carving into a thick plaster surface or building layers of heavily textured burlap fabric. The composition is often a grid-like pattern, relying on a variety of materials to create dramatic light and shadow in an earthy color palette.

> Jan Richardson's ceramics date back to 1960, but her love of craft goes back to a young childhood surrounded by creative women. In her current body of work, her early love of indigenous art and geometric pattern have culminated in a collection of vessels designed to honor and echo that ethos. Jan's newest works are no longer simply functional objects, but vessels to carry the imagination to the farthest reaches of the universe.

30. SOFT WATER GALLERY: 515 22nd St. S., St. Pete, FL 33712 - Opening of Carrie Jadus: Open to Interpretation. Jadus revisits her large-scale Rorschach series, the first of which were created as a response to the early days of the Covid pandemic. Wrought in black and white and highlighted by accents of gold, the familiarly-symmetrical abstract "blots" are at once powerful and delicate, with broad fields of pigment offset by trailing filigrees of paint. Jadus created the new series as a metaphor for the way in which personal experiences and social conditioning can cause two people to view the same situation very differently. What will you see? Visitors can also tour the working studios of resident artists Carrie Jadus and Robert Sutherland.
