Morean Center for Clay - 420 22nd Street. South (727) 896-2529 – Open Saturday, April 10th from 10am-8pm. Tracing Situations exhibition continues displaying the works of Shana Fliegel. Her work has an almost surrealist quality to it, and many of her pieces seem to point out the delicate balance between humanity and nature. She etches her designs into the clay surface, using a dull pencil first and then a pin tool. “As an extension of the drawn line, I am attracted to anything I can push, press or squeeze into the surface of clay. Its ability to record impressions reveals a certain degree of honesty in the process,” says Shana. She then uses a black wash to accentuate the lines, and has specific glaze colors, including ones she makes herself, to complete the works. Regular business hours for Morean Clay is Thurs to Sat 10am to 5pm
