This show is an expression of humor through utilitarian wares with the aim to help bring a bit of laughter and silliness to the home. I find that quite too often we begin to create routines and patterns that can become mundane and monotonous. The pieces in this show are meant to make the users stop for a moment in their busy lives and find small moments of joy and laughter. Whether they are used with friends or in blissful solitude the users should find themselves in a little silly, goofy mood.
