

Saturday, February 11

One Loop – Two Free ArtWalk Trolleys

Trolley One starts here at 5 pm

Trolley Stop #1 – 2955 Central Avenue

Craftsman House Gallery, Café & xPottery Studio

2955 Central Ave (727) 323-2787

Wire & Wood: The Art of Bim Willow. The legendary willow furniture maker, author and activist debuts his new collection of wire sculptures. Patsi, a world-renowned psychic from Golden Peacock Psychic Readings, will be giving readings on the porch. The award-winning gallery/cafe features over 300 artists - pottery, blown glass, jewelry, wood and art furniture in a historic 1918 Arts & Crafts bungalow.

Trolley Stop #2 – 2701 5th Avenue South

Thee Photo Ninja

2701 5th Ave S (813) 368-9256

Open gallery.

Trolley Stop #3 – 26th Avenue South between 26th & 27th Streets

Charlie Parker Pottery

2724 6th Ave S (727) 321-2071

Demos by Charlie Parker throughout the evening.

Zen Glass Studio

600 27th St S (727) 323-3141

The Women of Glass show. Featuring an all-female lineup of glass artists. Also visit all of the glass studios and glass galleries for the first annual Sunshine Glass Week & Glass Trail ArtWalk. And the latest work from your friends at Zen Glass Studio.

Trolley Stop #4 – 562 25th Street South

Funktionhouse Urban Lumber & Furnishings

562 25th St S (727) 286-0589

(Closed for February ArtWalk)

Trolley Stop #5 – 2342 Emerson Avenue South

Consilience

2501 Emerson Ave S (727) 280-3638

Featuring ceramic artist Brenda McMahon. McMahon will be showing her award winning saggar-fired vessels, along with her latest ceramic tile art sculptures.

Duncan McClellan Glass

2342 Emerson Ave S (813) 760-6600

Ciao Amici! Salvatore and Ferro Brothers from Murano, Italy!

Trolley Stop #6 – 400 23rd Street South

Brick Street Clay Studio

400 23rd St S (727) 325-3153

New work on display.

Trolley Stop #7 – in the parking lot of 515 22nd Street South

Dazzio Art Experience

535 22nd St S (727) 656-8277

St. Petersburg: Each artist has portrayed our City in their own unique way, from realism to abstraction. Some choose our buildings to define St. Petersburg, while others paint the colorful citizens in interesting situations. The featured artist of the month is Pat Green. Meet artists, many who will be demonstrating and painting. Live music.

Soft Water Studios

515 22nd St S (727) 480-8754

A 1500 sq ft. rotating warehouse gallery featuring sculpture, pottery, and paintings. The opening for Surrealist Tendencies by Timothy Innamorato. Timothy's work is full of color and full of life. Resident artists will open their studios to the public.

MGA Sculpture Studio

515 22nd St S (727) 327-3473

A commission-driven sculpture facility that specializes in the design, fabrication and installation of sculptural objects in a variety of mediums from cast-able materials to metal fabrication. Currently working on several large scale commissions for local private entities and across the country.

Trolley Stop #8 – 2240 9th Avenue South

Dr. Carter G. Woodson African American Museum

2240 9th Ave S (727) 323-1104

Gallerie 909

909 22nd St S (727) 565-3930

Trolley Stop #9 – 420 22nd Street South

Morean Center for Clay

420 22nd St S (727) 896-2529

Opening reception: Florida Heat Surface Gallery Show.

- - - - -

Trolley Two starts here at 5 pm

Trolley Stop #10 – in the parking lot of 3 Daughters Brewing, 222 22nd Street South

Nancy Smrekar Art Studio

2135 3rd Ave S, Unit #5 (813) 601-8304

Five Deuces Galleria Garden Building. Featuring acrylic/oil paintings in impressionism, realism and abstract styles by emerging artist Nancy Smrekar.

Free parking lot for trolley riders

Trolley Stop #11 – 2006 2nd Avenue South

From Mayan Hands

2006 2nd Ave S (727) 895-1112

Featuring handmade Mayan folk art, both new and antique. Also a large selection of santos, nativities, day of the dead, dance masks, colorful wooden animals, the usual religious folk art and outrageous Mayan art.

Trolley Stop #12 – 2010 1st Avenue South

The Clay Center of St Petersburg

2010 1st Ave S (727) 439-8522

Featured artist Ryan Raines. Ryan is a local artist new to the area. Visit with Kyu Yamamoto (Muse Winner). Raku firing throughout the night.

Trolley Stop #13 – 1114 Central Avenue

Creative Clay's Good Folk Gallery

1114 Central Ave (727) 825-0515

Civil Rights: Yesterday and Today. A Black History Month exhibit honoring those who initiated the Civil Rights Movement in the 1950s through the present. Featuring ceramics, mixed media and paintings by the Transition and member artists of Creative Clay. Also on exhibit, Elegant Women, paintings by our featured artist, Shasta G. Live music 6-8 pm

Trolley Stop #14 – 620 1st Avenue South

Studio@620

620 1st Ave S (727) 895-6620

Local artist Tyler Staggs exhibits a new body of work, Connections, which explores the correlation between life experiences and interpersonal relationships. Staggs has taught art in a wide range of settings to people with varying abilities and disabilities. This exhibition embraces Staggs's own fears of vulnerability by showcasing personal growth through art. Through performance art and painting he'll share his philosophy of individual transformation and overcoming inner obstacles. He hopes that by sharing the importance of relationships, viewers will create their own personal connections.

Trolley Stop #15 – 3rd Street S between Central & 1st Avenue South

The Gallery

200 Central Ave, Suite 111 (727) 324-6730

The Waste and Taste of Space: a special exhibit featuring some of digital collage artist Jason Brueck's newest work. Space represents both the finite and infinite. Recognizing and respecting the parameters of each requires an urgency to change the way we're changing things. Chance to meet the artist.

Ocean Blue Galleries

284 Beach Dr NE (727) 502-2583

St Petersburg's newest fine art gallery. Alexi Butirskiy will be painting live and in person.

Shapiro's Gallery

300 Beach Drive NE (727) 894-2111

Showcasing the finest in American-made blown glass, jewelry, pottery, wooden boxes and sculpture.

d gallerie

203 1st St N (407) 921-3608

Lynn Merhige Gallery

216 4th St N

New show with clay sculpture by Paul Yelensky. Theme of his sculpture is You cannot control the wind, but you can adjust your sails.

Trolley Stop #16 – 5th Street between 1st Avenue N & Central Avenue

Florida CraftArt

501 Central Ave (727) 821-7391

Sharp Edges:: Snip... Stitch... BANG! All art is created from soda and beer cans, tins and various metals. You won't believe the beautiful results! The ultimate shopping experience with thousands of original works of art including fine jewelry, ceramics, glass, home décor, fashion and more. A nonprofit organization that represents fine craft artists from all over the state.

ArtLofts

10 5th St N (upstairs) (727) 391-8908

MESU360 Project Gallery

578 1st Ave N (813) 760-7992

Fourward Glass

611 Central Ave (727) 433-9991

Strands of Sunshine

633 Central Ave (727) 823-2878

Lori Walters for It's a Love Revival. Be the love, live the love, share the love! It's all about love, love, love...and there will be lots of it to share with you! Paintings, prints, postcards, stickers...you name it! Come and find the most-perfect gift for your most-perfect valentine (and don't forget, the most-perfect valentine may just be your very own self)!

St. Pete ArtWorks

635 Central Ave (727) 710-7716

Mixed Emotions: mixed media and more by Lourdes Rosas-Rasdall. Live original music by Florida folk favorites Ronnie Elliott and Rebekah Pulley.

Graphi-ko Gallery

669 Central Ave (727) 667-8126

St. Petersburg's go-to location for designer jewelry, eclectic decor and local fine art. Featuring the art of Emma Holland and Jenny Bleackley. Emma and Jenny are local fine artists that have earned their reputations as creators of beautiful, nature-inspired paintings. More than 25 recent works.

Trolley Stop #17 – 719 Central Avenue

Morean Arts Center

719 Central Ave (727) 822-7872

Major Mud Revisited. Six ceramic artists were invited from across the country to share their latest works. Though differing in style and studio practice, these cutting-edge artists all demonstrate how this ancient medium is still relevant, with connections to social media, podcasts, collaborations with retailers and more. Journey: Photographs on the Way to a Destination. World renowned National Geographic photographer Sam Abell returns to the Morean to jury an exhibition that focuses on photography and community.

Trolley Stop #18 – 1445 Central Avenue

ARTicles – 1431 Central Ave

Leslie Curran Gallery - 1445 Central Ave (727) 898-6061

Over Rules: Taylor O. Thomas & Nancy Cervenka

In this exhibition, Cervenka's ongoing exploration of movie film as sculptural material is paired with the wildly gestural mixed media works of Thomas. Both artists use unconventional materials to create strong linear marks that defy two- and three-dimensional picture planes.

Trolley Stop #19 – 17 21st Street N

Davidson Fine Arts

2036 Central Ave (727) 827-1888

Featuring The Golden Collection, a series of photographs taken over gold pigment by photographer Jim Swallow.

Trolley Stop #20 – Central Avenue between 22nd & 23rd Streets

Woodfield Fine Art & Portraiture

2253 Central Ave #105 (727) 254-6981

Group exhibition, Reality Strikes. Prominent local artists who excel in contemporary realism will be featured.

Art for Art

2734 Central Ave (415) 333-3344

Featuring paintings and monotypes by Walter Frederick, and relief collages by Linda Southworth.