Universal Narratives Group Show shares the powerful medium for storytelling, preserving history, and expressing personal and collective experiences. Ceramics, with its tactile and transformative qualities, provides a unique avenue for artists to shape narratives in a tangible form. Lily Denhoff's show, Presence and Perspective showcases the work created by Denhoff in the first year of her residency at the Morean Center for Clay. Each of the ceramic surfaces are derived from the synergistic surrender that accompanies the woodfiring process. This discovery based body of work is a record of material research and different wood kilns/ firing techniques. Using an interdisciplinary consideration of material, she creates forms that express both literal and spiritual function. Through a play of scale and softness, each piece becomes a collaborative exploration of presence.

Conversation 6-7pm. Refreshments will be served.

RSVP: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/copy-of-in-the-presence-of-water-tickets-1993173443424?aff=oddttdtcreator>. About the Exhibition:

Benjamin Dimmitt has been photographing the Chassahowitzka River and National Wildlife Refuge for over forty-five years. Using film and a medium format camera, An Unflinching Look: Elegy for a Landscape presents thirty-seven photographs documenting how climate change, saltwater intrusion, and development have altered the area over time. In exquisite detail, Dimmitt's classic black and white images show us beauty, change, and loss. Once pristine wetlands and hardwood forests are now a wasteland of denuded palm trees. Previously clear, meandering creeks are clogged with fallen trunks and stumps. But the photographs also give us the hope that awareness and action can have restorative effects on a landscape constantly seeking to renew itself.

CENTRAL ARTS DISTRICT

26. MOREAN ARTS CENTER & GLASS STUDIO: 719 Central Ave., St. Pete FL 33701 - (727) 822-7872 – Come join us Saturday, July 11, 5-8pm for the opening night of 4 shows: Sugar High: 2026 Members Show, Neverne Covington: Into the Mystic, It’s Been a Privilege: Ceramics from the Giordano Collection and JOYLAND: Benaiah Cusack. The Sugar High: 2026 members exhibition presents nearly 150 works of art with the theme of excess and things we crave, as well as a joyful sense of color, chaos and childlike wonder. Within Into the Mystic, you will find oils, oil sticks, and wax on canvas, with layers that inform the next as each brushstroke or mark becomes the landscape of a surface. Covington’s drawings, prints, paintings and sculpture explore childhood, language, landscape, memory, and the gothic south. In It’s Been a Privilege, beloved local artist and Morean staff member Rob Giordano (1951-2015) amassed a substantial ceramics collection, adhering to the philosophy that it was a privilege to be able to own work by artists he admired and wished to support. His wife Linda has chosen to share their collection with our community in this meaningful exhibition and sale. Visitors will have the opportunity to see and purchase works by familiar artists including Russ Gustafson-Hilton, Alan Johnson, Matthew Schiemann, and Don and Cristina Williams, among many others, with a few works created by Rob himself. In Joyland, get inspired by imaginary coastal spaces, ocean light, rhythmic movement, tropical color, the energy of street art, and a hint of the cosmic, this body of work explores environments that feel both vibrant and introspective. Layered surfaces, fluid forms, and bold color interactions create an atmosphere that moves between dreamscape and memory—places that do not exist, yet feel familiar. The work balances playfulness with reflection, inviting moments of connection, engagement, and emotional escape.

27. THE STUDIO@620, Inc.: 620 1st Ave. S., St. Pete, FL 33701 – Production Playing February 12-15th: What starts as a polite academic conversation quickly unravels into something far more charged. This February, HerStoriesTold brings The Niceties—the sharp, timely play by Eleanor Burgess—to The Studio@620. Set in a university office, The Niceties centers on a meeting between a progressive white professor and her Black student that spirals into a fierce, deeply human debate about race, power, history, and who gets to control the narrative. What begins with good intentions exposes uncomfortable truths about privilege, identity, and the limits of civility. Smart, unsettling, and often darkly funny, The Niceties doesn’t offer easy answers—but it invites audiences into the tension, the questions, and the conversation we’re still learning how to have. Join us for a production that challenges assumptions, sparks dialogue, and lingers long after the lights go down.

28. FLORIDA CRAFTART: 501 Central Ave., St. Pete FL 33701 - (727) 821-7391 – Our current exhibition, Florida NOW, is a curation of contemporary fine craft by artists from across Florida, highlighting work in traditional materials approached with fresh vision and urgency. Curated by Holly Hanessian, recently retired Head of Ceramics at Florida State University and a nationally respected artist and educator, the exhibition reflects the breadth and vitality of craft practice taking place throughout the state today. By bringing together artists from diverse regions of the state, Florida NOW offers a focused snapshot of what craft in Florida looks like today—bold, skillful, and deeply connected to place, process, and lived experience. June 13th is the last day of this incredible show- be sure to come by and check it out! Visitors can also enjoy exploring our retail space for contemporary fine craft in clay, jewelry, glass, fiber, wood, metal, mixed media, and printmaking. With new pieces arriving weekly, every visit brings fresh opportunities for collecting and gift-giving.

31. BROWNE ART GALLERY - 260 1st Ave S Third Floor, Suite 200-197, St. Petersburg, FL 33701 - New paintings by Francesco Agresti are presented in a solo exhibition entitled Emancipation. Agresti, an Italian-born artist who immigrated to New York in 1956, was educated alongside notable post-abstract expressionist artists including Sean Scully and Leon Golub, and has exhibited nationally and internationally. Agresti's latest body of work responds to Florida's coastal light and atmosphere—lyrical abstract meditations on seagrasses and ocean waves that convey intense interior emotion, mastery of color, and luminosity. Emancipation celebrates the artist's late career, marked by a palpable freedom, looseness, and joy. We look forward to welcoming you to this exhibition and to the inauguration of Browne Art's new gallery space in downtown St. Petersburg's Museum District, located on the third floor of Station House. Refreshments will be served, conversations will be ongoing, and all works on view will be available for acquisition. Curator-led walkthroughs will take place throughout the evening.

UPTOWN ARTS DISTRICT

33. ARTicles ART GALLERY AND THE LESLIE CURRAN GALLERY: 1234 Dr. MLK Jr St. N. Units A & B, St. Pete, FL 33705 - (727) 898-6061 – ARTicles Gallery presents CLOUD OF DUST, a solo exhibition of new works by Jason Hackenwerth. Hackenwerth, who is based in St. Petersburg, was born in St. Louis, MO, received a BFA in Printmaking and an MFA in Painting. His unique style and voice in both sculpture and painting has resonated around the globe. His art has been exhibited in Switzerland, Italy, South Korea, England, Scotland, Mexico, UAE, China, and Russia. Closer to home, Hackenwerth has been a dedicated and catalyzing part of the art community. He founded and operates Sixstar Art Studios, an artist collective, and twice received the Creative Pinellas Professional Artist Grant for artists of outstanding talent and ability "who bring recognition, awareness and interest to the community, inspire other artists and art lovers, and help make Pinellas County a vibrant arts and cultural destination." Most recently, Hackenwerth was selected as one of ten artists chosen for the prestigious Orlando Museum of Art 2026 Florida Prize in Contemporary Art. As Leslie Curran (ARTicles Gallery owner) noted, "To be one of ten chosen for this award is a tremendous honor. Our gallery is thrilled for Jason and incredibly proud to represent his works." Because of their introspective nature, Hackenwerth's paintings defy easy description. They are "an abstraction of symmetry through emotional freedom. . . . when a core, baseline human psyche gets splashed in vivid color onto canvas." The new works featured in the CLOUD OF DUST exhibition will continue this internal reflection. As Hackenwerth has said, "There is an indescribable quality that I'm looking for. . . . How does one capture the sense of longing and nostalgia mixed with despair and sarcasm, and still filled with love for the whole thing?" CLOUD OF DUST will remain on display at ARTicles Gallery until July 3.
